

DIVORCED WIFE MAY FIGHT FOR HART'S MILLION

Surrogate Beckett Permits
Her to Intervene in Contest for Big Estate.

Surrogate Beckett today granted the motion of Lawyer Blen in behalf of Estelle Kitty Hart for permission for her to intervene and contest the will of Benjamin Hart as his widow.

Benjamin Hart, who started as an old clothes man in Virginia, amassed a fortune in real estate and then lived in Paris twenty-five years. He died there May 11, 1907, leaving an estate of $1,000,000. He left an annuity of $15,000 to Mrs. Gabrielle Juliette Antonette de Lise, who presided over his establishment; to his nephew, Michael Hart, $50,000; and the income of the residuary estate.

He left nothing to Isabel Lucchesi Hart, wife of Jean Guilleman, of the French diplomatic corps, who had been adopted by him, in a will stating that he had already provided for her.

When Mr. Blen sought to intervene for Estelle Kitty Hart as Hart's widow, he was met by the record of an absolute divorce granted to Hart by default against her in this city, in 1883. This divorce is attacked by Mrs. Hart. She declares she never heard of it before; that neither she nor Hart ever lived in this jurisdiction after their marriage.

Mr. Blen also contends that Surrogate Beckett has no jurisdiction, that although the Hart million is almost entirely in New York real estate, he was domiciled in France, his will was made in France and should be probated and construed by the French courts.

Surrogate Beckett did not pass upon the validity of Hart's divorce, leaving that to be determined on the trial of the contest, merely ruling that her proof that she was Hart's widow was complete.

BACHELORS' BELLBOYS HELD FOR ROBBERIES.

Diamond Pins, One Man's Six Silk
Hats and Expensive Hosiery
Vanished at the Century.

Rupert Tucker, Marcellus Tucker and William Alston, young negroes, who were employed until a week ago as bellboys at the Century Apartments, No. 119 West Forty-first street, were arraigned before Magistrate Harris, in Jefferson Market Court, today, charged with thefts committed in the bachelor apartment-house.

Rupert Tucker pleaded guilty to stealing three pairs of silk socks and eight silk handkerchiefs. Alston was held on a charge of stealing a diamond pin, the ownership of which has not been determined. Marcellus Tucker was held for further examination.

Lieut. Detective Beach, who made the arrests, said that Mr. Kulevich and J. Howells had lost diamond pins; Ernest Lambert a diamond ring and six silk hats and H. K. Vignut a silver cigarette case.

BLACKMAIL AFTER FIREBUG'S PLOT TO BURN FACTORY

Detectives Trap Man Who Is
Said to Have Accepted
Marked $5.

Frederick Jeninger, twenty-eight years old, was held in the Adams Street Court, Brooklyn, today, pending an investigation by the police and the Fire Marshal of charges of blackmail and arson.

Several weeks ago there was a fire in the Brooklyn Paper Box Company's factory at No. 208 Wallabout street. It was put out by Max Katsky, manager of the plant. When he discovered the fire Katsky saw a man running away who resembled Jeninger. Then he saw that the fire had been started among boxes and rags soaked in oil. Three hundred and fifty girls are employed in the factory.

Several days after the fire Katsky got a letter commanding him to put $200 in a tin can placed outside the door. The letter was signed "Fred. of Park Avenue." Katsky turned this letter over to the police, and Detectives Reynolds and Dittmas, of the Brooklyn Central Office, were assigned to the case.

The detectives gave Katsky a marked $5 note and instructed him to follow about the door of the factory and await the arrival of the blackmailer. The detectives hid. Presently Jeninger came along. Katsky asked him if he had written the letter. Jeninger said that he hadn't, but, Katsky says, remarked that he knew that whoever wrote it meant business.

Katsky then asked the man if he could do anything to ward off the blackmailers if he got $5. He gave the marked note to Jeninger, who accepted it. As he put it in his pocket the detectives arrested him.

LITTLE CHILD LOSES MOTHER IN STRANGE LAND

Four-Year-Old Franz Adler
Landed Here Only Four Days Ago.

Four-year-old Franz Adler, a merry faced little chap with sparkling eyes and a wealth of long dark hair, has only been in America ten days, but he has lost his mother, been driven from a temporary home, faced a stern police magistrate and been assigned to a lost children's haven where he awaits a new mother.

Mrs. Eloise Sandheimer, of No. 1834 Second street, unfolded a strange story of her possession of the boy. As a result the police are searching the houses and the morgues in search of the child's missing mother.

The Mother Despondent.
A week ago Charles Sandheimer, the husband, found mother and child crying on a bench on the Second avenue and Ninety-second street elevated station. He took them to his home, where the mother, a refined appearing little woman, told of failing to meet relatives at the pier when she landed from Bremen, of the depletion of her small fund and spoke of ending it all in the river. The Sandheimers offered her food and a bed. Little Franz fell asleep. After two hours the mother left, saying she would return soon. Next morning she went to the Sandheimer home and asked to see Franz. She pressed the child rapturously to her breast, kissed him and said good-by to the Sandheimers, adding that by nightfall she would be back. The woman has not been seen since.

Takes Children to Court.
Mrs. Sandheimer carried her own daughter, Annie, while she led another child, Charles, aged four, and little Franz. The deserted mother was dressed in the typical immigrant child's clothes. He clung to his little companion while the Court and Mrs. Sandheimer were determining his fate. When a big policeman took him in his arms to carry him to his new home, he stopped crying and began playing with the big officer's buttons.

Mrs. Sandheimer fears that the mother, a young light haired woman not more than twenty-five years old, has done away with herself, following her brooding when not able to find friends or relatives.

ROOSEVELT SORRY BUT HE CANNOT VISIT MELBOURNE.

That Is, on Return From African Hunt, Although He May Get to Australia.

MELBOURNE, Oct. 14.—Premier Deakin today presented to the House of Representatives the answer received from President Roosevelt in reply to Australia's invitation to visit the Commonwealth on his return journey from Africa.

Mr. Roosevelt expresses his appreciation of the courteous invitation, especially in view of the hospitality extended recently to the American battleship fleet everywhere in Australia, but he regrets that he will be unable to visit Australia on his way back from his hunting expedition. In conclusion the President says he hopes at some future time to be able to come to "the giant young Commonwealth of the Southern Seas, whose success is of the greatest importance to the civilized world."

Macy's

Are YOU Paying the Price of Charge Account Conveniences
In a Credit Store?

Running a "charge" account in a credit store is one of the easiest known ways of getting rid of money and ENCOURAGING EXTRAVAGANCE. Not alone is there the temptation to buy many UNNECESSARY things—because they do not have to be paid for IMMEDIATELY—but there is the absolute certainty that you are paying HIGHER PRICES than you would pay for similar goods in a STRICTLY CASH STORE.

Macy's is a strictly cash store—the largest cash retail establishment in America. The Macy TITLE TO UNDERSELLING SUPREMACY IS CLEAR, because other stores, giving credit, cannot AFFORD to sell goods on a margin of profit as slender as we get.

Just take one example—late Books. Though they cost us more than they cost other stores, as the Book Trust publishers will not sell to us direct, WE SELL THEM FOR LESS. Here such publications sell for 98c. a copy against the $1.08 or more asked by every other dealer in the land.

A Macy underpricing of but 10% is hardly representative. On many other lines it is VERY MUCH GREATER. On imported novelties, for example, our prices are frequently but one-half what others ask.

Granting that a "charge" account system affords many conveniences, our Depositor's Account system does BETTER. It gives ALL the conveniences of any "charge" account in a credit store combined with ALL the economies of the Macy Cash System.
